Brett Strake, a native Houstonian, is a Vice President at NewQuest Properties who specializes in Tenant Representation. Since graduating from Texas A&M University with a BBA in Finance, he has represented both regional and national retailers throughout the greater Houston market.

Brett's experience includes working closely with purchase and sale agreements, lease agreements, and lease renewals as well as preparing detailed market analysis and assisting retail clients in the real estate process. His passion for building relationships and helping his clients find the perfect locations exemplifies why Brett is one of NewQuest's rising young broker talents.

In his spare time Brett enjoys playing golf, attending Texas A&M sporting events, and spending time hunting and fishing in south Texas. He is also a committee-man for the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo and serves as a mentor at Spring Spirit Baseball here in Houston.
